This year marks LP's first appearance on the IndustryWeek 50 Best U.S. Manufacturers list placement puts it within the top 5% of all publicly traded U.S. manufacturers.

"Being recognized among the nation's 25 best manufacturers is a tremendous honor and a testament to the dedication of our entire team," said LP Chair and CEO Brad Southern. "This award underscores our commitment to operational excellence, sustainable innovation, and delivering long-term value for our customers and shareholders."

This year marks LP's first appearance on the IndustryWeek 50 Best list. Now in its 29th year, the ranking has become a benchmark for manufacturing achievement, honoring companies that consistently demonstrate resilience, efficiency, and investor value. Past honorees include some of the most recognizable names in global manufacturing.

"We call this group the 50 Best Manufacturers because they consistently turn in good numbers for revenue growth, net income growth, margins, inventory controls, and other metrics," said IndustryWeek Editor-in-Chief Robert Schoenberger.

LP's inclusion reflects its sustained growth, disciplined operations, and position among the country's most competitive manufacturers.
