Forward-Looking Statements

This presentation contains statements concerning Louisiana-Pacific Corporation's (LP) future results and performance that are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The accuracy of such statements is subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions that may cause actual results to differ materially from those projected, including, but not limited to, the effect of general economic conditions, including the level of interest rates and housing starts, market demand for the company's products, and prices for structural products; the effect of forestry, land use, environmental and other governmental regulations; the ability to obtain regulatory approvals, and the risk of losses from fires, floods and other natural disasters. These and other factors that could cause or contribute to actual results differing materially from such forward-looking statements are discussed in greater detail in the company's Securities and Exchange Commission filings.

Market Outlook – New Housing Demand

■ Short-term

- No recovery in sight for residential housing activity: unsold home inventory remains high (new and existing), new order rates and permits stymied, pricing reductions in many markets
- Credit markets still in trouble ... significant foreclosures anticipated
- Buyer sentiment appears to be “waiting for the bottom”

■ Long-term

- Positive long term trends and demographics including: household formations, immigration, affordable interest rates
- New housing starts sustainable at 1.85 – 1.95 million starts per year (2005-2014)*

Market Outlook – Other Demand

- Repair / remodel demand relatively flat
 - More and older houses in the existing stock
 - Rise of “big box retailers” and availability of “installed sales” is making access easier
 - Second mortgage activity to finance improvements hampered by current credit market uncertainty

- Commercial and light industrial construction activity could be slowing

- Slowing economic activity may negatively impact demand

Outlook and Actions

- Limited housing recovery expected in near term
- Challenging from an earnings perspective
- Continued focus on cost reductions and improvements throughout the organization
- Weather the storm to emerge stronger when the recovery starts
 - Drive marketing and sales activities to take share
 - Prudent start-up of new mills
 - Manage operations / inventories to demand
